THE FUTURE

Yours by special commission!

You've soared into the future world of the computer-literate! Your Sinclair ZX81 is a personal magic carpet, transporting you through the mysteries and fascination of electronic information. This book-size wonder is as serious or as entertaining as you want it to be!

To commemorate this important computer breakthrough, Sinclair has specially commissioned a poster from Jim Burns of The Young Artists, one of England's most talented Art Collaboratives. Depicting the ZX81 navigating a vast futuristic landscape, this full-color poster will be a stunning center of attention in your office or den, and is sure to cause plenty of comments from friends and colleagues. Measuring a full 23" × 33", it is printed on heavyweight glossy paper, suitable for mounting and framing.
